

	Lead org.	Additional partners involved	Type of funding	Level/scale of the partnership	Disciplinary/thematic focus	Research approaches
CS 1	INGO	Primary UK-based academic partner plus INGO country partners	Internal, self-funded and small project seed funding	Ongoing series of collaborations between two individuals (with the HEI also involved at an institutional level)	Community health, sexual & reproductive health, HIV/AIDS	Systematic review, institutional analysis
CS 2	INGO	Primary UK-based HEI partner plus INGO country partners, additional INGO partner, local governments	Substantial funding for a 5 year operations research initiative from a large foundation	Implemented in 3 African countries	Health governance, HIV/AIDS	Health interventions, time series, cohort studies, survey
CS 3	INGO	Primary UK-based HEI partner plus HEIs from the Global South	Project funding (x2 projects) by two large Foundations	Two concurrent large-scale projects (4 and 5 years) involving 5 countries in Africa	Education, gender equality	Longitudinal mixed method study, participatory research
CS 4	HEI	Primary INGO partner plus their country partners and volunteers	Partnership funding for 5 year project	Implemented in 5 countries across Africa and Asia	Volunteering	Systematic participatory research, mixed method case studies
CS 5	HEI	Primary INGO partner plus their country partners and students	Internally resourced ongoing knowledge production and learning collaboration	Began as a series of collaborations between individuals and evolved into an institutionalized partnership	Urban planning, housing, water management, wellbeing, technology justice, gender and social diversity	Policy learning exchanges, strategy development, curriculum development (practice-based modules), student fieldwork (qualitative), evaluations
CS 6	HEI	HEI and INGO as conveners and a range of CBOs, policy makers, TUs, media as part	Minimal internal funding from the HEI for the partnership	Formal institutionalized partnership	Political science, economics, Health, work, austerity.	Policy forum, range of
CS 7	HEI	Consortium of INGOs, HEIs, brokers, trainers and funders	RCUK funding for 2-year project (plus significant investment of unfunded time)	Began as a series of collaborations between individuals and evolved into an institutionalized partnership	Organisational studies, media & communication, sociology, education.	Seminar series; case studies; participatory research