

Children's Information Sheet

Sharing Books with Children

You can use this information sheet to explain to your child what they will do

Someone will visit you and your family at home.

You will do some games and activities with the visitor.

She will talk to your family about reading.

She will leave lots of books for you to read together.

You will do the activities and games with her again after a few weeks.

