Project title: Self-Legitimation by International Organizations

N.B. These files have been redacted to remove identifying or sensitive/classified information. For this project, a total of 87 interviews were conducted across three international organizations – the United Nations, NATO, and the World Bank – but 71 refused permission for deposit of interview transcripts, even if redacted, including the entire cohort of interviewees from the World Bank. The interviews archived here took place during five separate rounds of fieldwork in Geneva, New York, and Brussels between January 2017 and February 2018. However, due to the risk of identification, files do not specify the date or location of the interview.

The following files have been archived:
