

Consent Form (Online Survey): The pandemic arrears crisis: Private landlord perspectives on the temporary legislation impacting the Private Rented Sector (ES/W002868/1)

Researcher: Andrew Watson

Informed Consent/ Right to Withdraw

- I confirm that I have read and understood the Participant Information Sheet for the above-named study and have had the opportunity to ask questions.
- I understand that my participation is voluntary and that I am free to withdraw at any time, without giving any reason.

Confidentiality

- I understand that my contribution is made on a completely anonymous basis. Specifically, the research does not request the provision of personal identifiers (such a name of full postal address) that can be matched to my response.

General Consents and Waivers

- I acknowledge that my comments may be quoted in publications arising from the research, but that a pseudonym will be used instead of a personal identifier.
- I agree to waive my copyright to any data collected as part of this project.
- I acknowledge that any data collected may be used in future publications, both print and online.
- I understand that the data collected will be processed and analysed utilising research software.

Future Use

- I understand that the data collected will be retained in secure storage for a period of at least ten years via the UK Data Service and the Enlighten, the University of Glasgow's repository. This will facilitate its use in future academic research.
- I understand that other authenticated researchers will have access to and may use collected data including my words, in publications, reports, web pages, and other research outputs, if they agree to preserve the confidentiality of the information as requested in this form.

If you understand and agree to the aforementioned, please progress to and complete the survey.