Title of project

Practices and Partnerships: Examining Primary Teacher Training

Invitation Paragraph

I would like to invite you to participate in this project which forms part of my research into practices and partnerships in teacher education. Before you decide whether you want to take part, it is important for you to understand why the research is being done and what your participation will involve. Please take time to read the following information carefully and discuss it with others if you wish. Please contact me if there is anything that is not clear or if you would like more information.

What is the purpose of the project and why have I been invited to participate?

The purpose of the project is to explore the learning and development of trainees on postgraduate primary teacher training programmes. You have been invited to participate as you are currently training on a programme.

What will happen if I take part?

Taking part in the project involves the completion of this anonymous questionnaire. You may also be invited to participate in an online interview, although this is entirely optional. With your consent, the interview will be audio recorded.

Do I have to take part?

Participation is completely voluntary. You should only take part if you want to and choosing not to take part will not disadvantage you in anyway. You are free to withdraw at any point of the project, without having to give a reason. Withdrawing from the project will not affect you in any way.

Data handling and confidentiality

Your data will be processed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 (GDPR). All data for analysis will be anonymised. In reporting on the research findings, I will not reveal the names of any participants or the organisation where you work. There will be no possibility of you as an individual being linked with the data. If you would like more information about how your data will be processed in accordance with GDPR please visit the link below:

What will happen to the results of the project?

The results of the project will be used to inform seminars for teacher educators, planned to take place in the autumn of 2021. The results of the project will also be used for the production of a peer-reviewed journal article, intended for publication in 2022.

Who should I contact for further information?

If you have any questions or require more information about this project, please contact me using the following contact details:

Principal investigator: Dr Sarah Steadman sarah.steadman@kcl.ac.uk

What if I have further questions, or if something goes wrong?

If this project has harmed you in any way or if you wish to make a complaint about the conduct of the project you can contact King's College London using the details below for further advice and information:
