Study Title: Pandemic Policing – public perceptions in Hampshire

REC Ref No: FHSS 2020-040

Dear Potential Participant,

We invite you to participate in a research study considering public attitudes and policing in Hampshire during the current COVID-19 pandemic. My name is Dr Rob Inkpen, Co-Investigator on this research project which is being run by Dr Sarah Charman as Principal Investigator. I have been a researcher at the University of Portsmouth for over 25 years. Details of my research can be found at HERE. The survey will take about 15-20 minutes to complete.

Please note, you are under no obligation to take part in this survey. Answering the survey questions will indicate that you are taking part voluntarily and that you give your consent to the information being used. No identifiable information about you will be disclosed to any third party. Once you have submitted the survey your responses are saved and, as all responses are anonymised, your specific responses cannot be withdrawn at a later date. You can, however, leave the survey at any point and your responses will not be saved.

Should you wish to have any further details about the project before this, please contact me at robert.inkpen@port.ac.uk or the Principal Investigator for research sarah.charman@port.ac.uk,

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Yours faithfully,

RJ Inkpen

Introduction to the Survey and Consent

Many thanks for considering participating in this research.

This project is being undertaken by the University of Portsmouth and is being funded by the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC). The survey should take about 15-20 minutes to complete.

The research project aims to:

1. identify and analyse the public attitudes towards the policing of COVID-19 restrictions and the potential responses to future restrictions;
2. explore and analyse the influence that differences in underlying public attitudes have in shaping the responses to the policing of COVID-19 restrictions.

In order to take part in this survey, you must agree to all of the following statements below. If you feel you cannot agree, you will not be taken forward to the survey questions.

1. Please fill in the form below to progress to the survey. * Required

Please don't select more than 1 answer(s) per row.

Please select at least 6 answer(s).

	Agree
I have read the participant information letter from the link above about the research and understand its content.	<input type="checkbox"/>
I understand that my participation is voluntary and that I am free to withdraw at any time.	<input type="checkbox"/>
I agree that my data may be used in future comparable ethically approved research .	<input type="checkbox"/>
I accept that the anonymised data I have provided, as part of a wider sample and report may be published in a journal.	<input type="checkbox"/>
I accept that I may be quoted verbatim but anonymously to demonstrate example responses or perceptions in the findings or another section of the research paper.	<input type="checkbox"/>
I agree to take part in the above study.	<input type="checkbox"/>

The next set of questions is designed to assess your general attitudes towards social and economic issues. These may seem out of place in a survey about policing, but they are designed to try to extract information on the general worldview of an individual. This will enable us to assess if worldviews are related to views about lockdown restrictions and the policing of the pandemic.

Please remember that if there is any question that you would prefer not to answer then you can skip it. Also you may leave the survey at any point before you submit and your responses will not be recorded or saved.
