

Interview Schedule for Local Government Representatives and Public Planners

- Your role within the organisation and background
- How long have you worked for the organisation and how has this role changed?
- What are the council's core priorities and how have these evolved? Why?
- How do you build networks with other agencies? How have these changed and why?
- Who manages the relationships between the borough and others? How have these changed?
- What are the key challenges/tensions that exist around housing in the Borough?
- What have been your key successes/failures in dealing with housing policy?
- What finances do you have and how have these changed?
- How do you work with private sector companies of different types – investors, developers, SWFs etc
- How do you ensure that enough affordable housing is delivered in the Borough?

London

- What is different about the London market?
- Does the London market provide opportunities to generate finance for the council?
- How helpful is the London Plan/other regulations in helping the Borough deliver on their targets?
- How helpful is the presence/existence of wider delivery targets?
- What are relationships like with local authorities in London? Any clear patterns emerged?
- What are relationships like with other agencies in London? Any clear patterns emerged?
- Do you work with other agencies to push for regulatory changes in London (and elsewhere)?
- Any further comments? Is this a reasonable summary of your views?