

The uploaded documents are for the knee exoskeleton prototype validation in the laboratory with participants. The agenda and protocol were general guidance and could be modified according to the participant need during the trial sessions.