Exploring Children's Responses to and Engagement with Feminist Biographical Illustrated Books

My name is Louise and I am a PhD student at the University of Glasgow. I would like to invite you to take part in a research project.

I am interested in learning about how children read books about women, like this one!

What will happen if you take part?

ONLINE INTERVIEW

We'll talk about how you find reading

POST

4 books will arrive!

ONLINE GROUP READING SESSIONS

We'll look at the books and talk about what you think

You can tell me about your creations

SEND ME PHOTOS

of what you've done

ACTIVITIES based on the books!

In your own time you can draw, build, write, make things...

What happens after the project?

I will look at the my notes, the interview recordings, reading session recordings and the photographs you sent me!

I will write about what I learnt. In the future, I might write books and articles, and give presentations.

This is called
RESEARCH
DATA

What else do you need to know?

You can change your
mind at any time!

I would like to
video record the
interviews &
reading sessions
so that I can remember what
we talked about

At the end of my PhD I will delete the research data that
has clues about who you are. You can decide what
happens to the data
that uses your made-
up name

When writing about
the project I will
choose a made-up
name for you and
check that you're
happy with it. I will do my best to keep
your identity a secret,
but this might not be possible

If you have any ideas
for the activities or interview questions I
would love to hear
them!

If I hear or see
anything that makes me worried about
your safety I will need to talk to
somebody

I will keep your
contact information safe
and delete it at
the end of
the project

Please
contact me
if you have any questions!
