

Seminars, symposia and keynotes presentations 2022 - 2025

The Humanising Healthcare team have presented findings from the project to a number of inter/national and multi/disciplinary audiences. You can find a link to the powerpoint slides for many of these presentation on our News Page. If you require any further information about these presentations please email d.goodley@sheffield.ac.uk

Daw Srdanovic, B. (2025). 'Yes, and' - how can improv games help researchers be more imaginative in analysis? Inclusive Creative Methods Symposium, York St John University, 19th of June 2025.
Goodley, D. and Lawthom, R. (2025). The depathologising University. Paper presented at the Disability Matters ∞ Ways of Perceiving: International Conversations, University of Toronto, 30th May 2025.
Hayden, N. & Daw Srdanovic, B. (2025). Humanising Healthcare and People with Learning Disabilities: Introducing Themes of Touch and Allyship. Online talk to BILD's Ways to Live Well: Enabling People to Live Happy Healthy Lives. March 2025. Invited keynote.
Hayden, N. (2025). 'Humanising Healthcare: Posthumanism, Touch, and Allyship'. University of Exeter. February 2025. Invited keynote.
Daw Srdanovic, B. (2025). Humanising Healthcare: Centring Empathy, Resisting Dehumanisation. Empathy in Clinical Psychiatry, University of Oxford. March 2025
Daw Srdanovic, B. (2024). Towards learning disability allyship in healthcare – findings from Humanising Healthcare and people with learning disabilities. Invited talk at CPD event, Cornwall Partnership NHS Foundation Trust, Newquay. April 2024
Daw Srdanovic, B., Hayden, N., & Goodley, D. (2024). Humanising Healthcare: A Co-produced symposium. Hybrid talk to UCL Clinical Psychology students, UCL, London. December 2024
Hayden, N. (2024). An ADHDer attempts ethnography. Leeds Disability Studies Conference, Leeds. September 2024.
Hayden, N. K., Wood, T. A., Prothero, M., & Clark, L. (2024). Humanising Healthcare and people with intellectual disabilities: A co-produced narrative study. The 17th IASSIDD World Congress, Chicago. August 2024.
Hayden, N. & Daw Srdanovic, B. (2024). Conceptualising Inclusive Care: Reflections from the Humanising Healthcare project. Cancer and Social Exclusion – Truly Inclusive Care, The Christie School of Oncology, Manchester. May 2024. Invited talk.

Daw Srdanovic, B., & Hayden, N. (2024). Preaching to the (not yet) converted – the impact of critical disability studies on the project Humanising Healthcare. The 2nd International Conference on Disability Studies, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. April 2024
Hayden, N. (2024). Humanising Healthcare: Theories of subjectivity to theories of connectedness and care. 2024 National Student Psychiatry Conference: Me, Myself and I. University of Sheffield. Invited talk . January 2024.
Goodley, D. and Lawthom, R. (2023). Making Disability Matter. Paper presented at Nordic Network for Disability Research Conference , May 2023, Reykjavik, Iceland
Goodley, D. (2023) Being Human as Praxis: Activists with intellectual disabilities as public intellectuals and theoretical provocateurs. Invited Keynote address, Mid-term Conference of the Research Network of Sociology of Health and Medicine, European Sociological Association (ESA RN16), Charles University, Prague, 24th - 26th May 2023.
Goodley, D (2024). Invisible lives, Silent Voices: For People with Learning Disabilities, Invited paper, 6th session of the “Invisible Lives, Silent Voices” International Seminar, EMMA, Université Paul Valéry Montpellier 3), IRHIM, ENS Lyon), Ludwig-Maximilians Universität München and University of Amsterdam), Online, 11th May 2023
Daw Srdanovic, B. (2023) Researching with Care. Paper. Don't Leave us Behind Research Capacity Building Event . CIDER, Redruth, 16th May 2023.
Hayden, N. and Daw Srdanovic, B. (2023) Theorising Humanising Healthcare with people with Learning Disabilities and/or Autism. Invited Paper, Communications, Autistic people, and People with Learning Disabilities , University of Durham, 23rd June 2023
Goodley, D. (2023) What is humanising healthcare for people with Intellectual disability? Invited keynote address, Faculty of Psychiatry of Intellectual Disability Annual Conference Date: Wednesday 1st – Thursday 2nd November 2023, Leeds.
Hayden, N. and Daw Srdanovic, B. (2023) Humanising Healthcare. Invited Symposium, RADiANT , online, 24th November 2023
Daw Srdanovic, B. and Hayden, N (2024) Co-production in Research – The Emperor's New Clothes? Paper, Midlands Conference In Critical Thought , Online, 6th of April 2024
Goodley, D., Lawthom, R. and Halsey, R. (2023). How is health research, theory and scholarship transformed by an engagement with critical disability studies? Invited paper, Second International Conference on Disability Studies , Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, 19-21st April 2023.
Goodley, D; Hayden, N; Daw Srdanovic B; Sunderland People First; Barod; Speak Up Rotherham; Sheffield Voices (2024) Humanising Healthcare, Symposium, Disability Studies Conference , University of Leeds, 3rd - 5th September 2024

Goodley, D. (2024). Depathologising the University. Invited keynote, NADSN 10th Anniversary Conference & Celebration, Friday 6th December 2024, University of Greenwich.

Daw Srdanovic, B. (2024) Allyship in Healthcare. Invited Talk. CPD Event. Cornwall Partnership NHS Foundation Trust, Newquay, 27th November 2024